Dear The Federal Communications Commission,

Mr. Chairman:

I'm a single mother of a "special" child. I'd wanted a cellular phone for emergency's but couldn't afford to purchase one or pay the monthly fees. Then I was given a Trac-phone as a gift.

I've used it only twice in 3 months but carry it with me wherever I go "just in case". It's given me peace of mind.

Adding a tax would make even pre-paid service a hardship for many of us or force us to do without it.

Please don't take away the safety and feeling of security I have with my cellular phone.

Sincerely, JoAnn Aikey Milton, VT

Sincerely,
